Father Carlos Borja 402-571-4404 frcarlosborja@materdeiseminary.org. If the student feels their concerns were not met satisfactorily, the student should contact the Bureau of Iowa College within the Iowa Department of Education <https://educate.iowa.gov/higher-ed/student-complaints>.

6) Cost of the Seminary

A seminarian of Mater Christi Seminary pays no tuition or mandatory fees to attend the Seminary. The Seminary is funded solely by the donations of the Benefactors of Mater Dei Seminary. In order to attend Mater Christi Seminary you need to fill out the Application, provide a letter from your pastor, and be interviewed by Most Rev. Mark A. Pivarunas or Father Carlos Borja. If it is determined that you have a true calling to the Traditional Catholic Priesthood, and are a good fit for our Seminary, you may enroll in classes at Mater Christi Seminary for the coming school years until ordination at no cost to you. All your courses, room and board will be covered due to the generosity of the Mater Dei Seminary Benefactors Fund. If later it is determined that you do not have a vocation and you choose to leave of your own accord, or are asked to leave by the Rector, you have no obligation to reimburse for the courses you have attended, or the room you have occupied or the meals you have consumed.

7) Refund Policy

The student pays no tuition or mandatory fees to attend Mater Christi Seminary, so no refunds are processed. Please refer to the explanation in #6 Cost of the Seminary.

8) Military Refund Policy:

Mater Christi Seminary is supportive of a student who is a member, or the spouse of a member if the member has a dependent child, of the Iowa National Guard or reserve forces of the United States and who is ordered to National Guard duty or federal active duty. Upon verification of orders requiring active duty, you may select from several options:

Options available to qualified students: Upon meeting with the Attendance office to verify orders, Mater Christi Seminary work with you to determine the best plan for your circumstances. Mater Christi Seminary has three options to review and consider with you.

1. Withdraw from the student's entire registration
2. Make arrangements with the student's instructors for course grades, or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the student's registration shall remain intact.
3. Make arrangements with only some of the student's instructors for grades, or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the registration for those courses shall remain intact. Any course for which arrangements cannot be made for grades or incompletes shall be considered dropped.

Please Note: We do not admit students that are married with a dependent child. The portion of the refund policy that states, "or the spouse of a member if the member has a dependent child" does not apply to our students."

These rules are in compliance with Iowa Code 261.9(1)g.
